

CV for Michael Hilton nominated for Committee Member, Central Coast Bridge Club
Age: 65

Education :

Bachelor of Engineering (Chemical) Sydney Uni, attended Gosford High School and St Edwards College Gosford TAFE Cert 4 in Team Leadership, various industry related training courses in Quality Assurance, Project Management, Safe Work and software applications Familiar with Microsoft Office applications, Microsoft Project, and business systems. Basic IT skills.

Work Experience (recent):

16 years as Project Engineer at Eraring Power Station, near Morrisset, mainly responsible for electrical and control systems projects.

Personal strengths

Honesty, integrity, common sense, problem solving, critical thinking, and ability to work with people

Goals as a committee member

- maintain the friendly, convivial atmosphere within the club
- promote the club where possible to attract new members
- ensure successful and cost effective completion of the building upgrade
- continued effective day to day operation of the club